

Please do not repeal the rules prohibiting a single owner from owning both television and newspaper service in the same region. Local monopolies on information distribution is a grave threat to democracy.

Sincerely,

Stirling Friendly